

Windows 2003 Admin

Audience

This course is intended for both novice and experienced programmers who have a minimum of three months programming experience and have basic Microsoft Windows navigation skills.

Prerequisites

- The participants must have knowledge of any of the Software Development and Windows OS Basic knowledge.
- Systems Administrator with hands on experience on Windows NT 4.0 in an enterprise class network.
- Anyone with strong conceptual understanding of System & Network Infrastructure

Course Content

Overview of Windows Server 2003 Family
Interface Changes from Windows NT
Introduction to Directory Services
Namespace and Domains

Installation and Configuration

Upgrading to Windows Server 2003
Configuring New Windows Server 2003 Installations
Installing and Managing Printers
Managing Users and Groups
Managing File Resources and Group Policy

Network Administration

Managing Daily Operations
Installing and Configuring Active Directory
Managing Active Directory
Administering TCP/IP
Implementing Disk Management
Configuring Storage
Implementing Security

Support Services and Features

Using Microsoft Certificate Services
Managing Software
Deploying Terminal Services
Understanding Other Services

Internet Servers and Services

Basics of Internet Information Services
Advanced Internet Information Services

Internet Security and Acceleration Server
Connection Services

Tuning, Maintenance and Repair

Performance Monitoring and Tuning
Disaster Planning
Using Backup
Planning Fault Tolerance and Avoidance
Using the Registry
Troubleshooting and Recovery

Optional Components

Windows Server 2003 Support Tools